Re: Job # 2077

Dear Mr. Plotnik:

I am writing in response to your ad for a Desk Assistant.

I found out about the job from my friend Andrew Klewan who works in the ABC news video department.

I was part of the editorial staff of Philadelphia's largest weekly newspaper, The Welcomat (now Philadelphia Weekly) working in several areas including typesetting, copy editing, editing, production and writing.

Obviously working on a newspaper means a deadline environment as well as a degree of organization and prioritization. In terms of being a self-starter, I have written hundreds of articles of my own initiative.

I would happily relocate to New York for this position.

Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Peter Brown
